Welcome

The Royal Solent Yacht Club is so much more than just a yacht club. Naturally we provide a variety of popular on-the-water activities such as local racing, cruising, events for younger sailors and renowned class regattas. But onshore we also cater to our members’ many tastes and interests through a range of diverse events and activities, from the formal to the more relaxed; you are bound to find a number of these to your liking.

The Royal Solent benefits from one of the best views on the Solent and taking it in while enjoying a drink at the bar, or watching the fabulous sunsets from the balconies or lawn, is hard to beat! Our team is re-nowned for great food and a very warm welcome - why not enjoy the excellent catering facilities on offer at the Club? Relax at informal Friday and Saturday night suppers and Sunday roast lunches, or enjoy formal black tie events, such as the dinner dance and summer ball. Arrangements can also be made for personal or corporate functions.

With some yacht clubs struggling to maintain numbers, it is gratifying to note that the Royal Solent has increased its membership, with over 250 new members joining in the past 20 months. This is the result of our dynamic events programme, a fine clubhouse, a relaxed friendly atmosphere and welcoming members, supported by a first rate staff. Come and see for yourself! (Becoming a Member - see page 25).
Formed in 1878, the Solent Yacht Club did not initially have a clubhouse, the George Hotel being used. In 1896 Colonel Sir Charles Seely, the then Commodore, offered to provide a purpose-built clubhouse on a site adjacent to the pier in exchange for rental payments. This offer was gladly accepted, the current building was constructed in 1897 and occupied the following year; it was symmetrical in shape and included a library, dining and billiards rooms. Ladies were admitted to membership in 1912. In 1932 the freehold was purchased and by 1936 a complete room reorganisation had taken place with accommodation found for the Secretary, as the membership wanted him “in residence”.

In 1946 the Solent Yacht Club merged with the West Wight Yacht Club and in the following year the Royal prefix was granted, the Club becoming the Royal Solent Yacht Club. This fusion between the two clubs raised the membership numbers to more than twice the capacity originally envisaged.

As membership numbers continued to increase it became necessary to expand the building further and four separate schemes, spread over four decades, altered all of the clubhouse elevations. While these adhoc solutions temporarily improved the problem caused by growing numbers, they were neither aesthetically pleasing, nor did they add to its operational efficiency.

A Brief History
In the last forty years a number of additional schemes have been proposed. Most envisaged the installation of a lift to cater for older members, but all were piecemeal and none progressed further than the drawing board due to cost.

In 2011, member James Hudleston produced an imaginative plan for the large scale enlargement of the Club, coupled with generous financial backing. This paved the way for the current clubhouse, cleverly combining up-to-date facilities while ensuring that the original appearance of the clubhouse is still recognisable.

All that now remains is for the eastern upstairs area of the building to be refurbished and this is scheduled to take place in the winter of 2016-2017.

Sailing is at the heart of any yacht club and the Royal Solent is no exception. The first regatta at the Solent Yacht Club was held in 1881 and the Solent Seabirds were formed in 1900 as the Club’s first one design class.

The Yarmouth One Design (YOD) Class was formed in 1913. A separate organisation, The West Wight Sailing Club, was formed in 1924 with both clubs merging in 1946 to become the Royal Solent Yacht Club the following year. In 1948 the Yarmouth Division of the XOD Class was formed, subsequently going from strength to strength. Since then, the YOD Class disbanded in 1970, but happily reforming twenty five years later, with other popular classes being the Folkboats and Lasers.

These four classes, in addition to other Class I and II boats, comprise the majority of those who race regularly off Yarmouth during the summer and autumn. Club racing takes place on Wednesday evenings and at Weekends, from late April until the end of September, with autumn and winter racing taking over on Sundays from October until Christmas. However, there is far more to the Royal Solent’s racing programme than traditional club racing since we run regattas as well as taking the lead to encourage young sailors - our life blood of the future - and we also host a number of other open events.

Over recent years the Club has provided many opportunities for young sailors, either at Royal Solent events, or through training sessions and regattas in conjunction with Yarmouth Sailing Club at Easter and during the May half term.

Dinghy Week in August is always popular, with competitive racing for four days combined with great fun ashore; the Delphie Lakeman Trust, Ocean Youth Trust and Harwoods, the local Yarmouth chandlery, all provide sterling support for this event.

In addition to events specifically organised for younger sailors, many join in the Laser races, Sunset Series and Wednesday evening racing, particularly during August.

Cruising

There are some members who prefer cruising to racing and their needs are covered by the Cruising Group, which encompasses both sailing and motor vessels. Our Cruising Division is thriving, with an annual programme of visits to locations throughout the Solent. Most of these “Out to Lunch” events are hugely popular with visits to pubs, yacht clubs and restaurants. The majority of these are day trips but there have also been a couple of overnight trips to Bembridge. Those without a boat are invited to crew and join in the fun.

The Club has also organised several foreign cruises, including to Croatia, the Canal du Midi, Nivernais Canal and Turkey. While there are many prizes for racing, it may be of interest to know that there are also trophies for cruising. For example, the Morva Cup is awarded for the best account of a cruise in a sailing or motor yacht, while the John Leonard Trophy is awarded to the motor yacht which submits the log that shows the boat travelled the furthest from its home port in any one cruise.
The Taittinger RSYC Regatta

The Taittinger RSYC Regatta is the Club’s flagship event with 185 entries in 2015. The event begins with a Champagne Reception on Friday evening, with over eight hundred people attending. Racing dominates Saturday and Sunday, with 14 classes racing from two start lines. The fleets are very varied, including four IRC divisions, classics, gaffers, keelboat and open boat classes, including the local Yarmouth One Design (YOD). Boats range in size from 20 to 80 feet. Participants on Saturday evening are entertained at the Towers Party, where the Club’s next door neighbour, John Caulcutt, kindly throws open his grounds on the water’s edge to the annual YOD fund-raising party, with proceeds going to charity.

Post racing on Sunday, the weekend concludes with a hog roast and prize giving where, in addition to the usual silverware, the winner of each class is rewarded with a Magnum of Taittinger, plus a Jeroboam for the overall winner. The success of the event is in large measure due to the generous support from Taittinger and that of co-sponsor Charles Stanley. Yarmouth Harbour Commissioners are also generous with their discounted mooring rate for competitors.
The Regatta is primarily a fun event helped by the relaxed attitude of both organisers and competitors as well as the low-key nature of the sponsors’ involvement. Many competitors have been moved to comment and two such citations are recorded below:

“The regatta… seems to be completely designed for us, the competitors, and not geared around the sponsors and the Race Committee, unlike the majority of South Coast regattas.”

Richard Oswald, 1902 Gaff Schooner Coral of Cowes

“We had a lot of fun. We have not had this much fun in all the boats we have ever owned and this was a proper regatta. It was how you expect a regatta to be.”

Our race officer teams are very experienced in hosting rallies and regattas for a wide range of yachts and the Club has run championship series for associations and classes over many years. The Royal Solent is ideally situated in the Western Solent for access to several key sailing areas, providing windward/leeward racing, team and match racing. Indeed, Christchurch Bay, just on the edge of the Western Solent, is regarded as one of the country’s finest racing areas.

Yarmouth Harbour offers fine facilities and nearby boatyards provide all the usual services.

Some regattas are held on a rotational basis, some less frequently but mention must be made of two: The Royal Artillery Regatta and Folkboat Week. First, the Royal Artillery Regatta. This year saw their sixty-sixth regatta at the Royal Solent, which is usually scheduled for the second weekend in September. Almost as long standing, Folkboat Week has been held at the Royal Solent since 1966. This year was their fiftieth anniversary and it was great to see fifty-seven entries. In addition to the racing, the week also incorporates a great deal of socialising.

Open Sailing Events

The Club holds a number of open events throughout the year. The Prince Consort Charity Race is a weekend regatta with a long race east up to the Prince Consort buoy just off Cowes. The racing is followed by a charity dinner, with proceeds this year going towards Combat Stress & the Ellen MacArthur Trust. The Fandango Charity Race in August is open to any craft that floats and involves dressing up, dressing overall and race officer bribery! Boats set off on a simple course and at a given signal retrace their tracks. This fun event on the water is followed by music, limbo dancing and good food – in short, a great party. The Centenary Chase is a pursuit race for keel and day boats.

In addition to our local club yachts, the Old Gaffers’Association always joins in so there is the additional spectacle of many gaff-rigged craft. Each boat has its own start time, carefully calculated so all will finish together, however, this has yet to happen! The Turkey Cup Race is held in early October and is hotly contested with a fine silver claret jug for the winner. However, tactics often come into play as the second overall wins a fine turkey for Christmas!

Race Management Opportunities

Racing cannot take place without race officers! Happily, the Royal Solent has a fine reputation for race management with members encouraged to become involved. The Principal Race Officer sets the courses, so even for those who have never raced it is easy to learn the procedures and enjoy, from the vantage point of the committee boat, the race as it unfolds around you.

During the winter months we run training courses for absolute beginners up to the standard of RYA Club Race Officer. Many of our race officers have gone on to take further qualifications and involve themselves in racing for other clubs in the Solent and all over the world. A good race officer qualification is an international passport!

We welcome all membership applications! If you don’t know any existing members to support your application, we will arrange for you to meet with our Vice Commodore for an informal chat at the Club. You don’t have to be a sailor or own a boat to join - our extensive social programme offers activities and events, both on and off the water, throughout the year.

During the summer there is an active programme of events afloat, such as Wednesday evening and weekend sailing, in addition to regattas and other traditional races. While Wednesday racing finishes at the end of September, racing continues on Sundays through to Boxing Day. There is also a popular Cruising Group that organises day outings in the summer; there is always space for members who don’t own a boat or don’t sail or simply wish to experience a pleasant day out on the water. Members may also sign up to volunteer as crew, take an RYA Powerboat Course or become involved as a race officer.

Onshore activities are particularly prevalent in autumn & winter months; why not stimulate your grey matter at scrabble, backgammon or bridge? There is also a wine society, Sponsoring a Royal Solent Racing Mark is beneficial to both sponsor and Club. From the sponsor’s viewpoint your company’s name will be seen every time a yacht rounds the mark as well as being seen by other boaters on their Solent trips.

Race officers regularly read out the course over the radio to competitors over the radio; yet more publicity. The Royal Solent lays a number of yellow racing marks along the island shore off the club from April to the end of the year.

RSYC & Yarmouth Harbour

Yarmouth Harbour is a popular destination for visiting yachts, motorboats and RIBs for both overnight and short stay moorings, with its excellent facilities and easy access for vessels of all sizes. The Royal Solent works closely with the harbour as the Club’s sailing regattas and rallies, such as the Taittinger RSYC Regatta and Folkboat Week, attract many visiting boats and, in turn, the harbour works with the Club to support events such as the RYA Active Marina programme.

In addition, the RSYC and harbour have also introduced mutually beneficial special offers, such as 10% off food at the Royal Solent for Winter berth holders and visiting yachtsmen during the winter months, and provide training facilities for Sailing School skippers and their crew members.

A Yarmouth Charity supporting Island projects.

Proud sponsors of the RSYC Youth Regatta
With 23 years of experience sourcing, tasting and shipping wines from around the world, Eurovines has established itself as the Island’s wine wholesaler to the trade. We work with hotels, restaurants, pubs and clubs all over the island, as well as other corporate companies with their wine needs.

We pride ourselves on working with “One man and his Vineyard” as much as possible. This has proven to give us much better wines for the money – wines fighting well above their weight. Our long standing relationships with our suppliers are built on trust and respect. We look for growers who have a respect for the land and work in a sustainable way, using a minimal amount of outside influence.

❖ Same-day-six-day delivery – place your order before 11am and we will deliver the same day.
❖ Over 6oo different wines held in stock on the island in 7500 sq ft of warehousing.
❖ Our vast stock holding here on the island allows our clients to hold very little stock. This ensures good stock rotation and minimal cost.
❖ A uniformed and professional delivery team who care about your wines as much as you do.
❖ Quality wines that repeat sell for you – time after time meeting your profit requirements.
❖ Wine lists professionally designed and printed, tailored to your establishment.
❖ Wine and food matching for any events you are hosting.
