Data Protection – Member Consent Form

The Royal Solent Yacht Club (RSYC) will always adhere to the current data protection legislation and takes seriously its responsibilities to protect personal data. The Club has a Privacy Policy which can be found on the RSYC's website (www.royalsolent.org/privacy-policy).

The information you provided on your Membership Application Form will be used solely for dealing with you as a prospective member and/or active member of the RSYC.

In accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), which came into effect last year, by completing this form you are giving your consent in respect of the following:

1. I consent to my details being included in the RSYC's Members' Directory that will be shared with other RSYC members.
2. I agree not to share the contents of the RSYC's Members' Directory with non-members and not to use it for advertising, political reasons, promotional purposes or financial gain.
3. I undertake to securely store and, when out of date, securely dispose of my copy of the printed Members' Directory.
4. I undertake to maintain secure access to the online Members' Directory via my online member account.
5. I consent for my image to be used by the RSYC in photographs of the Club's activities for the sole purpose of promoting the Club.
6. I acknowledge that I can withdraw consent by submitting my withdrawal request in writing to the Club.
7. I acknowledge that if I later decide to withdraw consent it will not be possible to remove my contact details from the printed directory until the next annual edition is printed.
8. I have the authority of my partner, family members and/or dependents, whose names are listed in the field below, to complete this consent form on their behalf.
