Out to Lunch at The Basque Kitchen

The Basque Kitchen was the venue for the Cruising Group's Out to Lunch at the end of May.

Mooring in Shepherds Wharf in West Cowes meant a short walk to find "a haven of Basque Country culture and cooking."

Non boat owners were able to join in with this lunch which boosted the numbers to around 20. The Basque Kitchen was basically Tapas, the Tuna salads in particular were a good main, others had white asparagus and some had Wagu Meatballs, most came with mountain of chips....!

The range was good and everyone was well fed at a reasonable price.
