“A totally magnificent trip...On behalf of John Lewis can I say what a great success the trip was. Every detail was thought of and the organisation was superb. The hotel and choice and variety of the restaurants were excellent. We are all delighted - please give me a call when you have a moment so that we can start talking about the next one” The John Lewis Partnership

“The trip to Italy was fantastic and I can tell you everyone thoroughly enjoyed it, and we all ordered some wonderful wines! The guide was great, very knowledgeable and helpful. The choice of vineyards was very good because each one was different from the others. I didn't take my camera with me this time because when I have in the past I've never used it, but this is the one trip where I'd have taken lots of photos because it was so fantastic” E.Lawton
